

EFİK

PREAMBLE

A sound knowledge of the Efik language, literature and culture is a fundamental need for all who desire the comprehensive knowledge of the Efik people.

Based on this, the Efik syllabus is designed for candidates studying Efik. Adequate care has been taken to ensure that candidates go through the rubrics of the Efik language.

The syllabus covers such important areas of the language as the sound system, grammar, culture, worldview, etc.

OBJECTIVES OF THE SYLLABUS

The objectives of the syllabus are as follows:

- To enable candidates to speak, read and write Efik properly and communicate effectively in it.
- To familiarize them with the sound system, grammatical structures and other features of the Efik language
- To expose the candidates to Efik culture – customs, institutions, worldview, etc.
- To provide them with the necessary tools needed for creative writing and appreciation of the Efik language and literature.

The rubrics shall be written in Efik. Candidates will be required to answer all the questions in Efik using the standard orthography and Metalanguage.

The subject will consist of two papers, Papers 1 and 2 both of which will make a composite paper and will be taken at one sitting.
